Beach bonfire, barbecue and live music from 'All the Fires' at The Ferryboat Inn, Helford Passage on 5th June 2010

The Ferryboat Inn at Helford Passage welcomes the much talked about 'up and coming band' All The Fires, for live music and evening acoustic jamming session on the beach, Saturday 5th June.

Live music from All the Fires starts at 6pm through to 9pm and will be followed with an unplugged jamming session from the bands special guests, around the beach bonfire from 9pm.

One of the best evenings to be had for miles, there will be a barbecue from 5-7pm and the beach bonfire at 9pm, with beach acoustic session until closing time.

Bookings currently being taken, terrace seating available for the Ferryboat Inn's a la carte menu.

Press coverage for All the Fires:

"The songs are as delicate as spiders webs in the mist and just as strong." Fatea Magazine

"Talented, multi-instrumental and uniquely charming, All The Fires are a total breath of fresh air. Lush arrangements mix with Regina Spektor-esque vocals, leaving the listener with a warm feeling deep inside." Go2 Magazine

“Strikingly beautiful yet bittersweet songs...their music is timeless and commercial enough to appeal to a wide audience...the songs are loveable, vibrant things. The West Briton
