

Let's go wild!

Discovering Places Goonhilly Eco-Trail Day

The Lizard National Nature Reserve Free Event

Let us bring the inhabitants and history of the heath-land to life with our Eco-Trail Challenge.

Have a brilliant day of discovery and adventure around the heath and the historical Ministry of Defence Second World War buildings. Activities include code cracking, art challenge, bird spotting and storytelling...

This a registered event part of a UK wide celebration of the countdown to the Olympic Games the opening of the new easy access path providing wheelchair and buggy access allowing everyone to enjoy the incredible wild heath area.

AND

Open to children and their families, trail activities all accessible by wheelchair. Free parking in the Goonhilly Earth Station car park, the trail will start from here. Toilets available (inc. disabled) No need to book, last entrance to trail is at 2.:45 pm

For more information contact:
Claire Scott: 01326 240808
www.naturalengland.org.uk

