

Interested in sustainable living ?

Keveral Farm

Permaculture Design Course

22nd July - 5th August 2010

Meet with likeminded people. Have fun.

Learn how to design practical solutions for treading lightly on the planet.

Permaculture principles
Practical sessions
Mushroom growing
Novel salads & wild food
Woodland management
Cooperative living
Permaculture design skills
Veg box & local food
Site visits

Tutors: Bryn Thomas, Klaudia van Gool, Bill Knight

Cost: full £595 /£245 concessionary (means tested benefit)

Course fee covers: teaching, food, camping, field trips, Permaculture Association membership and certification.

If you require any help, financial or otherwise, to attend this course, please ask the Truro WEA Office.

WEA

Learning for Life

Permaculture
ASSOCIATION

LAND

Permaculture Demonstration Network

FOR MORE INFORMATION see www.klaudia.co.uk

TO BOOK YOUR PLACE CONTACT:

WEA office, 47 Lemon Street, Truro, TR1 2NS

Tel/Fax: 01872 320036

or email cornwalloffice@wea.org.uk

www.wea.org.uk

Permaculture is a design process.

Based on principles observed in the natural world, that enables us to make positive choices towards more sustainable lifestyles. It is both inspiring and highly practical